

Tamara is Deaf-Blind.

But it hasn't kept her from helping others.

Hire Me

My name is Tamara. I'm deaf-blind. People who are deaf-blind have varying degrees of vision and hearing losses, with causes as varied as being born too soon, accidents, genetic reasons, getting older, and others. While my deaf-blindness limits my access to information others get from vision and hearing, it does not stop me from living a full life or having a great career. I love social work and helping persons with disabilities. Take a few minutes to understand how you can communicate with me and understand what an asset I can be to your company. Help me and the thousands of other Illinois residents that live with Deaf-Blindness everyday by visiting BeMyVoice.com today. My name is Tamara and I just want you to hire me.
